

Stolen Generation and Past Policies

WORKSHOP 6

We offer Professional Development for Early Childhood Professionals, Primary and Secondary Teachers on the history and effects of the Stolen Generation and past policies on Australia's Indigenous people. Understanding past treatment of First Nations groups gives educators insight into the experiences of trauma and pain that our communities are confronted by and aims to encourage cultural sensitivity. This workshop includes watching a film, group work, storytelling and hands on art experience.

DVD produced by Reconciliation Australia

Yarn
Strong
Sista