Yarn Strong Sista...
Living, Sharing and Maintaining Indigenous Culture

Yarn Strong Sista (YSS) is an Indigenous Education Consultancy that provides a range of services including Aboriginal Cultural Awareness Training, Aboriginal Storytelling and Indigenous Education Resources.

Yarn Strong Sista started from a story that was told to us by the late Aunty Iris Lovett-Gardiner, a Gunditjmara Elder, teacher and activist. Today thousands of children have heard Aunty Iris’s story called The Possum Hunt in a Storytelling Puppet Show format, unique to YSS.

YSS Indigenous Consultants conduct storytelling, face painting and art experiences in early childhood services, early, middle and senior years at primary and secondary school levels.

YSS Consultants have extensive early childhood education (ECE) backgrounds and many years of experience in child development and working in the ECE sector.

We have a thorough understanding of the Early Years Learning Framework (EYLF), The National Quality Standard (NQS) and the implications for early childhood educators and educators at all levels in relation to promoting and embedding an Indigenous Inclusive Curriculum (IIC).

We have linked some of our resources in the YSS Catalogue in accordance with the EYLF to the appropriate Principles, Practices and Learning Outcomes providing focussed support for embedding an IIC.

YSS Aboriginal Cultural Awareness Training provides ongoing training and support through Cross Cultural and Indigenous Perspectives Workshops tailored to the needs of educators and trainers at all levels, including tertiary.

Workshop themes include:

• Indigenous Identity
• Stolen Generation
• Reconciliation
• Bush Tucker
• Art Experiences
• Indigenous Culture
• Past Policies
• Language
• Traditional Games
• Storytelling

Yarn Strong Sista has a strong commitment to developing resources that reflect a positive self-identity and connection to Country for Indigenous children and families. YSS believes that all children have the right to learn about Indigenous culture.

Yarn Strong Sista resources are ethically made by both Indigenous and non-Indigenous crafts people across Australia and in Nepal through Fairtrade. Our suppliers share our attitudes and commitment to ensure safety for children, durability and sustainability of resources created for Yarn Strong Sista.
